

ANNA NAGAR TIMES

Your own Neighbourhood Newspaper

470th Issue : October 6 - 12, 2002

Volunteers sought for reading lessons to blind students

'Jyothi Bhavan', a free Devarajan (Corporate Consultant and Patron of Nethrodaya) and Madhuri Menon (Trustee) spoke. inaugurated at 8, Spartan Nagar, Mogappair on Oct. 2 by Justice M. Karpagavinyagam.

Nethrodaya requires volunteers to read lessons to the students during evenings on weekdays and in the forenoon on Sundays.

Those interested may contact Gopi in phone 625 3450. (Retired Foreign Secretary), P. N. 3450.

29/12/2002

ANNA NAGAR TIMES

Your own Neighbourhood Newspaper

'Nethrodaya' appeals for donations

By Our Staff Reporter

'Nethrodaya', the free hostel for blind college students, functioning at 8, Spartan Nagar, Mogappair, has appealed for donations towards the purchase of a computer printer, geyser, washing machine, harmonium, tabla and other musical instruments.

It also needs six door mats, two plastic pots and an aluminium pot (5 kg. capacity).

Nethrodaya provides free boarding and lodging to blind college students.

Residents of Anna Nagar may make their contributions at the office of Anna Nagar Times.

Nethrodaya can be contacted in phones 2656 5012/2652 540.

Light music program at 'Nethrodaya' tomorrow

By Our Staff Reporter

To celebrate the New Year, the inmates of 'Nethrodaya', the home for visually impaired college students functioning at 8, Spartan Nagar, Mogappair, will present a light music program at 6 p.m on Monday, Dec. 30, at its premises.

Among the guests will be film actor Surya, music director Deva, and playback singers Unni Menon and Jolly Abraham.

They will also join in the singing.

About 150 visually impaired college students in the city are also expected to participate. C. Govinda Krishnan (Founder of 'Nethrodaya') told Anna Nagar Times.