Profile Overview

I, C. Govindakrishnan, was born on May 10, 1971, in Chennai. Being visually challenged since birth, my parents encouraged me to pursue education in general schools rather than special ones. This led me to complete my schooling and earn Bachelor's and Master's degrees in English Literature. My college years were transformative, as I connected with other visually challenged students and recognized their struggles, which ignited my passion for serving this community.

In my early advocacy work, I spent five years with the Association of the Blind Students, leading movements to secure education and employment rights for visually challenged individuals. Through protests, rallies, and hunger strikes, I was imprisoned over fifteen times, but our efforts compelled government action, resulting in employment opportunities and welfare facilities.

Later, as a Project Officer at Banyan, I worked to rescue and rehabilitate mentally ill, destitute women, reuniting 122 of them with their families. In 2002, I founded Nethrodaya, an institution dedicated to empowering the differently abled, which has been serving the community with innovative programs for over 22 years.

Reflecting on my journey, I see my life as a gift. Though I often wonder how life might have been had I been sighted, I am grateful for the opportunity to transform challenges into avenues of service. The fulfilment I derive from helping others is indescribable, proving that perseverance, thought, and action can overcome any obstacle to make a difference.

Advocacy Initiatives

I am deeply passionate about advocating for the differently abled community. As a Member of the State Advisory Board, Government of Tamil Nadu, and having served on various high-level committees, I have actively worked to secure their rights, influence policies, and ensure the effective implementation of government schemes.

My efforts include lobbying with the government and fighting pivotal legal battles, such as the landmark Madras High Court judgment on 28.01.2016, which mandated the appointment of scribes for school and college students appearing for Board Exams, leading to GO No. 54 dated 29.02.2016 and an order dated 08.03.2016 from the Higher Education Department.

Another significant milestone was securing a judgment on 31.08.2017 exempting the payment of Infrastructure & Development Amenity Charges, enabling the issuance of GO No. 31 dated 09.03.2018 by the Housing and Urban Development Department. This decision has benefited numerous institutions serving the differently abled. Additionally, I played a key role in the historic Madras High Court judgment on 19.09.2022 that increased the monthly pension for differently abled persons from ₹1,000 to ₹1,500, positively impacting 4,39,315 beneficiaries in Tamil Nadu.

My determination also led to the restoration of land allocated for the differently abled (GO No. 748 dated 20.11.2006), despite challenges from a residents' welfare association. This victory was solidified by a favorable Madras High Court order on 17.10.2008.

Furthermore, I facilitated a special order from the Tamil Nadu Government waiving fees for visually impaired private candidates appearing for Board Exams (GO No. 220 dated 09.07.2013) and successfully advocated for enabling visually impaired students to apply online for their Board Exams under the same GO.

These initiatives reflect my unwavering commitment to advancing the rights and welfare of the differently abled community.
